

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

20 OCT 1983

[Redacted]
The American University
Massachusetts and Nebraska
Avenues, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20016

STAT

Dear [Redacted]

STAT

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on October twelfth. I know how difficult it must have been for you to spare us a full day of your time during this busy season on campus. The close relations that have long existed between The American University and the Central Intelligence Agency are reflected in the large number of graduates from your institution presently employed here at the Agency.

I hope you enjoyed and profited from your visit as much as I and my staff did by having you as our guest. [Redacted] and the others who briefed you or met with you before and during luncheon have informed me that they also found the exchange of views useful.

STAT

If you have any post-visit reflections on what was discussed here, I would appreciate receiving them. I am convinced that, working together, the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

767 William J. Casey
William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Distribution:

- Original - Addressee
- 1 - DDCI
- 1 - ER
- 1 - EXDIR
- 1 - PAO Chrono
- 1 - D/PAO
- 1 - DD/PAO
- 1 - PAU Reg (83-0019)

L-236

DCI
EXEC
REG

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

20 OCT 1983

[Redacted]
Texas Tech University
P.O. Box 4349
Lubbock, Texas 79409

STAT

Dear [Redacted]

STAT

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on October twelfth. I know how difficult it must have been for you to spare us a full day of your time during this busy season on campus. I was particularly happy to welcome you and your two colleagues from Texas, a state which has traditionally welcomed our recruiters and which has provided a significant number of the Agency's present or recent leaders.

I hope you enjoyed and profited from your visit as much as I and my staff did by having you as our guest. [Redacted] and the others who briefed you or met with you before and during luncheon have informed me that they also found the exchange of views useful.

STAT

If you have any post-visit reflections on what was discussed here, I would appreciate receiving them. I am convinced that, working together, the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

DCI
EXEC
REG

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

20 OCT 1983

[redacted]
Rice University
P.O. Box 1892
Houston, Texas 77001

STAT

Dear [redacted]

STAT

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on October twelfth. I know how difficult it must have been for you to spare us a full day of your time during this busy season on campus. I was particularly happy to welcome you and your two colleagues from Texas, a state which has traditionally welcomed our recruiters and which has provided a significant number of the Agency's present or recent leaders.

I hope you enjoyed and profited from your visit as much as I and my staff did by having you as our guest. [redacted] and the others who briefed you or met with you before and during luncheon have informed me that they also found the exchange of views useful.

STAT

If you have any post-visit reflections on what was discussed here, I would appreciate receiving them. I am convinced that, working together, the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

DCI
EXEC
REG

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

20 OCT 1983

[Redacted]
[Redacted]

600 Forbes Avenue
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15282

Dear [Redacted]:

STAT
STAT

STAT

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on October twelfth. I am well aware how difficult it was for you to join us even for the morning session. I wish that you could have been here for the afternoon briefing but I understand fully the importance of your meeting in Pittsburgh that day.

I hope you enjoyed and profited from your visit as much as I and my staff did by having you as our guest. [Redacted] and the others who briefed you or met with you before and during luncheon have informed me that they also found the exchange of views useful.

STAT

If you have any post-visit reflections on what was discussed here, I would appreciate receiving them. I am convinced that, working together, the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

DCI
EXEC
REG

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

20 OCT 1983

[Redacted]

Brown University
Providence, Rhode Island 02912

Dear [Redacted]

STAT

STAT

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on October twelfth. I know how difficult it must have been for you to spare us a full day of your time during this busy season on campus. Traditionally close ties with Brown University are reflected not only in the success of a number of Brown graduates in reaching high positions within this Agency, but also by the occasional presence among the faculty at Brown of an "alumnus" of this institution, such as Lyman Kirkpatrick.

I hope you enjoyed and profited from your visit as much as I and my staff did by having you as our guest. [Redacted] and the others who briefed you or met with you before and during luncheon have informed me that they also found the exchange of views useful.

STAT

If you have any post-visit reflections on what was discussed here, I would appreciate receiving them. I am convinced that, working together, the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

7s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

20 OCT 1983

[redacted]
University of Houston
4800 Calhoun Boulevard
Houston, Texas 77004

STAT

Dear [redacted]

STAT

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on October twelfth. I know how difficult it must have been for you to spare us a full day of your time during this busy season on campus. I was particularly happy to welcome you and your two colleagues from Texas, a state which has traditionally welcomed our recruiters and which has provided a significant number of the Agency's present or recent leaders.

I hope you enjoyed and profited from your visit as much as I and my staff did by having you as our guest. [redacted] and the others who briefed you or met with you before and during luncheon have informed me that they also found the exchange of views useful.

STAT

If you have any post-visit reflections on what was discussed here, I would appreciate receiving them. I am convinced that, working together, the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

7s/ William J. Casey
William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

